

ECHOES OF THE ANTE-ROOM

Mrs. Emma B. Manchester Entertains Supreme Officers at Washington Dinner.

SEYMOUR CAMP RELOCATES

Mrs. Manchester Entertains. On Monday evening, February 22, Emma B. Manchester gave No. 156, entertained the supreme officers at a banquet at the Hotel. The tables, arranged in "U" shape, were placed in the ladies' dining room, and were beautifully decorated with baskets of red and white carnations, set at different points, with bows of red tulle attached to the handles and forming streamers over the table.

The place cards were appropriate for the day, representing George Washington with the hatchet, ready to cut into a cherry branch, and George Washington sitting on a large hatchet with a hat full of cherries.

The favors were small red baskets with red flowers on the handle, filled with candies.

During the dinner, cabaret entertainment was furnished, which was very pleasing.

The following supreme officers attended:

Mrs. Emma B. Manchester, supreme guardian.

Mrs. Emma F. Campbell, supreme advisor.

Miss Dora Alexander, supreme clerk.

Mrs. Ida M. Kelly, supreme banker.

Mrs. Mary K. LaRocca, chairman

bureau of managers.

Mrs. Hadasah H. Johnson, supreme

manager.

Mrs. Mary Taylor, supreme manager.

Mrs. Sue M. Brison, supreme manager.

Mrs. Effie Rogers, supreme manager.

E. B. Lewis, sovereign manager of the Woodmen of the World, acted as toastmaster, making an eloquent address

in introducing to the members the supreme officers.

Another guest of honor was William

Russ, sovereign manager, Woodman of the world, of Ohio, who also addressed

the guests in a very pleasing manner.

United Spanish War Veterans.

Lee Forby camp No. 1 of the United

Spanish War Veterans held an annual banquet at the Magnolia hall Friday evening. Veterans of the Grand Army were represented and took a prominent part in the program.

Comrades Rathbun and Dunn of George

George Crook post No. 283 gave several rousing selections on their violins and were generously applauded. Comrade John

Berger of the same post gave one of the most spirited and enjoyable talks of the evening. Maps of dress and life of the selections on the mandolin by C. B. Mays were also greatly enjoyed. Short talks were made by almost everyone present.

Then came the beans, cooked and served army style, with black coffee. These were great reminders of the daily bill of fare of the camp life. In spite of a raging snowstorm outside about forty were present.

Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

On Wednesday evening Benson Rebekahs gave a "Hard Times" party at Odd Fellows' hall, which was largely attended. Unusual interest was shown in costumes worn, and prizes were won by

Mrs. B. R. Morton and Tap Morton. Visitors attended from Ruth and Florence lodges.

Hesperian encampment No. 2 will have

Golden Rule and Royal Purple degrees

next Thursday evening. Refreshments will be served.

There were two deaths at the Odd Fellows' home during the month of February. The body of J. A. Hill, 78 years of age, of Lincoln lodge No. 138, was sent to Lincoln for burial. A. H. Preston, 90

years of age, of Beaver City lodge No.

54, was buried in the Odd Fellows' burial

plot of the York cemetery.

Woodmen of the World.

At its hall Friday evening Columbus

camp No. 69 will give a dance, followed by an oyster supper. This camp is arranging for a series of entertainments

which it expects will prove an inspiration to the members.

Marconi camp No. 421 has arranged for

special committee work and is promising

Young of the local lodge: Past Chancellor E. D. Beck of Leonidas lodge No. 128, Decatury Chancellor Commander J. P. McConnell of Antlers lodge No. 72, Elkhorst; Past Chancellor H. R. Secord of Creola lodge No. 36, and Past Chancellor E. J. Culver of St. Alban's lodge No. 17, Council Bluffs. Grand Chancellor Paul Jones of Benkelman was to have been the guest of honor, but was called to his home in western Nebraska during the day on account of sickness in his family. A later visit will no doubt be arranged for.

All members of No. 1 in Omaha should remember the new meeting night and place of meeting since the destruction of our home by the recent fire. Meetings will be held hereafter on Tuesday evenings in Myrtle hall, Continental block, Fifteenth and Douglas streets.

Card Party. Banner lodge No. 11 will give a card party next Thursday evening, March 4, at Myrtle hall. Your presence is requested. Six prizes for the winners. Admission 15 cents.

Judgment Given in Suit Over the Sutton Bank Case

Mrs. Kate A. Anderson was awarded a verdict of $2,000, the face value, with interest, of a certificate of deposit on the defunct First National bank of Sutton, against George B. Darr by a jury in District Judge Estelle's court.

Judge Estelle instructed the jury that a verdict could not be returned for Mrs. Anderson unless she relied entirely on a representation alleged made by Darr, that he would refund the purchase price with interest at any time. She purchased the certificate through the agency of Darr, withdrawing her funds from a building and loan association in order to do so.

Mrs. Anderson is a widow and a seamstress by trade.

Code Keeps Doctor from Reading War News from Europe

At the Union Pacific's wireless station on the top of the headquarters building, Dr. Miller, the official in charge, is taking the daily weather reports from the government weather station at Arlington, Va. Not only is the doctor taking weather, but he is getting numerous wireless war reports filed at various points in Germany, England and France. The only thing that prevents the doctor from getting all of the wireless war reports is that he has not been able to figure out the code used by the wireless stations. Such matter as follows the regular Morse code he is able to decipher, but where a secret code is used he is stumped.
